PLAYING TAG WITH A PORCUPINE

By Sue Buchholz

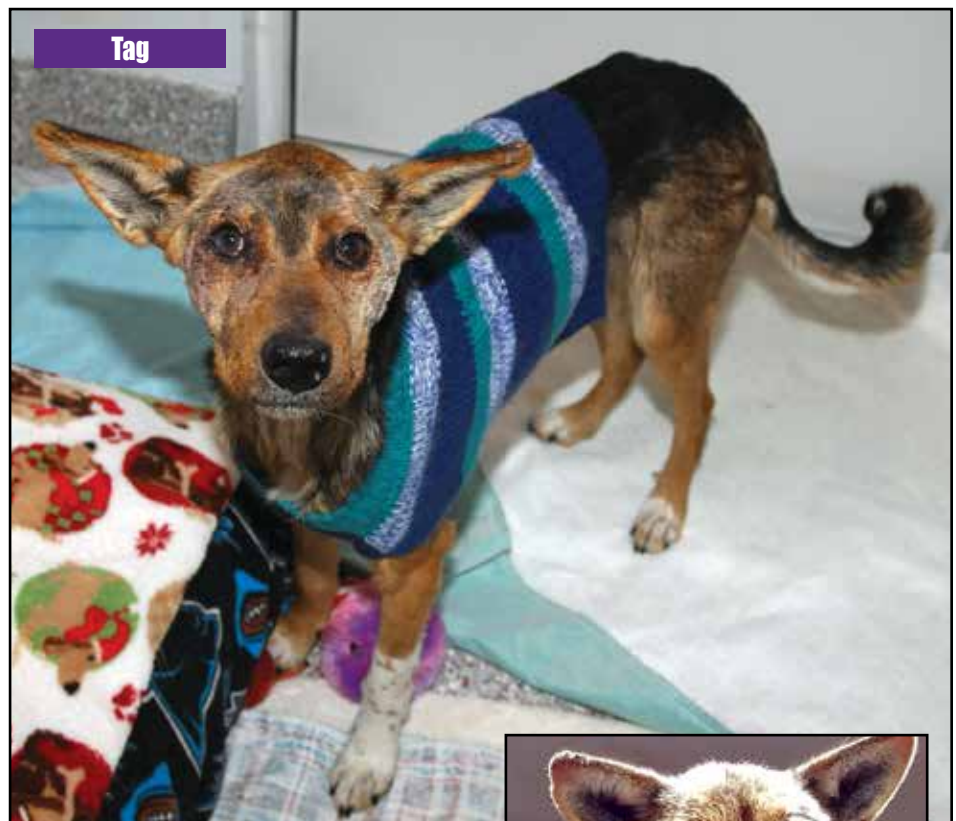

Photos by Jolene Podoll

We have seen our share of dogs who had an altercation with a porcupine, but our new friend Tag seems to be going for some sort of record!

Exactly 512 quills have been removed and judging by the swelling that still remains on her face, there will be more poking through the surface. Poor little honey! Over the years I have said many times that it is especially satisfying to help an injured animal and that certainly remains true. But what is different about this story is all the 'coincidences' that lead to our helping this sweet dog.

A kind woman works in Bismarck, but she happened by rare circumstance to have a business trip taking her out of town. On the way back home- on a whim- she chose a side road not usually traveled as a scenic detour. This is how she came upon Tag in the middle of nowhere. Oh yes, the kind lady had neglected to eat her string cheese snack for the road too, so guess what she had to offer this starving creature. Tag managed to gingerly eat the cheese, but there were numerous quills inside her mouth too. Tag knew she needed help and got into the car without hesitation. Not knowing for sure where to go next, Tag's guardian angel headed straight to Heart River Animal Hospital in Mandan. The clinic staff contacted CDHS and we of course agreed to take over responsibility.

Clinic staff immediately sedated her and began the tedious process of removing all the quills they could and caring for her wounds. She is a shepherd mix who only weighed 21.6 pounds and they estimated her to be 2 or 3 years old.

She is recuperating at the shelter and we are aiding in her healing the best way we know how. She had quills in her eyes, so she has scarred corneas, but they are slowly healing. We managed to put six pounds on her in a little over eight days by small meals fed every couple hours or so. Her diet consists of high quality canned puppy food, cottage cheese, boiled hamburger and rice, bone broth, deli turkey, vitamins, pain medications, antibiotics, and eye medications. Her mouth is still very sore, but she is so appreciative and after a week she knows the next meal will come soon and is no longer wolfing her food like it's her last meal. Bringing an animal out of starvation mode takes time, but slow and steady wins the race.

The Vet said that she had corn and corn cob pieces stuck in the quills inside her mouth so thinking about her desperate attempts to keep herself alive makes us very sad indeed. But this story WILL have a happy ending and I really do not think that is a coincidence at all. It heartens me that there are kind people who choose to get involved and not look the other way. Even when it is messy or inconvenient or takes them out of their "intended" path. CDHS can help because our donors provide the resources needed for us to pamper and rehabilitate these sweet souls. And in time we promise Tag will have a family of her own and never experience hunger, excruciating pain or loneliness or fear again. Better days and blue skies are ahead for Tag, but not by coincidence. 🐾

A Little Change Adds Up To Big Changes

Center-Stanton students pitched in a little change to help Central Dakota Humane Society make big changes for the cats and dogs at the shelter. C-S preschool through 12th grade students and staff dedicated this year's reading month fundraising challenge, "Paws for Reading," to CDHS, contributing their pocket change in classroom containers throughout the month of February.

The coins added up to a whopping $1,328 donation to CDHS.

"Since we're the Center-Stanton Wildcats, the combination was 'paws-ively purr-fect,'" C-S Librarian Milissa Meckle said, referring to how the Paws for Reading focus on different types of animals and pet care and the fundraiser fit with the school's mascot. "We're excited about the total raised, and happy to know that CDHS will use it to help homeless animals."

The students also learned about the work CDHS staff and volunteers do, and how the money they raised will help care for homeless pets and find them forever homes. 🐾

President's Report

By Cameo Skager CDHS Board President

Without our donors, we just couldn't do it. We couldn't find stray, injured or abandoned animals. We couldn't feed them, take care of their medical needs, socialize them, love them a WHOLE bunch, and then help them find new homes where they can share their love with a family. But, because we have the most dedicated and generous donors and supporters, we ARE able to do all those things. We are able to save animals.

I would like to recognize three special donors who believed in CDHS, believed in our mission, understood the needs of the shelter and the needs of the animals. These donors wanted to leave a legacy – they wanted to help provide for CDHS's future and help us make sure we could continue helping animals every day.

The first donor is Orville Lindseth. Nineteen years ago, Orville came to the shelter and had a visit with Sue. His sister, Agnes, had passed away and he wanted to do something in her memory. He gave us $100,000. Partly as a result of this donation, we were able to construct our current dog building. It was such a wonderful and selfless gift. This past summer, Orville passed away. He continued his generosity to CDHS by naming us as one of the beneficiaries of his will. He wanted to make a difference in the lives of many animals and we are blessed to be able to help him fulfill his wishes.

Orville Lindseth

The other two donors are Dave and Sherri Wahl. Just like Orville, the Wahl's were animal lovers and chose to help forward CDHS's vision by naming us in their will. The Wahl's were expert collectors of all kinds of antiques, including pottery, tools, and car and oil memorabilia. Their amazing collection was willed to us and we will fulfill their wishes to turn their passion into funds that will help us continue helping animals.

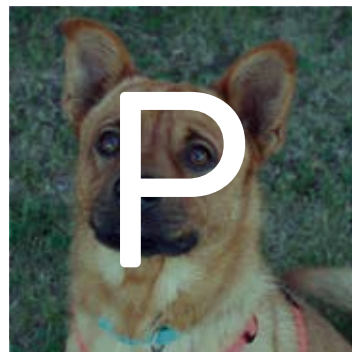

Dave and Sherri Wahl

Mr. Lindseth and the Wahl's had confidence in CDHS. They knew we would be frugal and responsible with their assets. They knew that we had the knowledge, the heart and the passion to use their legacy donations to continue helping the animals.

I encourage everyone to consider a legacy donation to CDHS – by naming the organization when preparing a will. We have a 60-plus year history in Bismarck-Mandan, and we will be here for many years to come, finding the critters who so desperately need help and setting them on a path to a better life. We will continue working hard.

Because you are reading this, I know you believe in our mission, that you believe in helping the homeless dogs and cats and making sure they find loving homes of their own.

It is with your help that we can continue our work – our crazy, tiring, stressful, sometimes sad, always exciting, and wonderful journey of doing great things for pets and people. 🐾

Mandy's Corner

By Mandy Schaaf, Volunteer and Event Coordinator

Our Bene-Pet theme was the Wizard of Dogz & Catz. In the original Wizard of Oz story, a tornado carries Dorothy to the magical Land of Oz. She becomes homeless but befriends a scarecrow, a tin man, and a cowardly lion. This group of misfits heads to the Emerald City in hopes that the great and powerful Wizard of Oz can help Dorothy find a way back to Kansas and to help the others with their issues.

Dorothy utters the phrase “there’s no place like home” many many times during this timeless movie.

Many of the animals at CDHS are somewhat like Dorothy - they have lost their homes. Some are like the tinman, lion, or scarecrow, in that they may come to us with issues and may be a “misfit” in their current situation. Some have been wandering like the characters in the Wizard of Oz until somehow they found their way to CDHS. I like to think of our director, staff, and volunteers are like the great and powerful Wizard who can help them find their way back to Kansas or wherever they end up.

Those words, “There’s no place like home” are spot on for our animals. The Central Dakota Humane Society is like the yellow brick road taking them one brick at a time to their new home.

We have some volunteers who provide that yellow brick road to a new home by providing companionship or support for our dogs and cats at the shelter. Most of our critters are scared, sad, and sometimes sick or injured when they come to CDHS –almost like they did go through a tornado. A special group of volunteers donate time every day to help these sweet, furry misfits overcome their issues by spending their time at the shelter or spending time doing a task that supports CDHS.

The list of volunteers that donated 100 hrs or more includes, Jerry Kemmet, for donating hours managing the construction of our new building. Anne Green, Margy Green and Annette Tait for bottle feeding many liters of kittens and puppies. Jolene Podoll, our fantastic photographer who donated 787 hours in 2017, Eileen Hannu, a dog walker that donated 708.50 hrs. Other dog walkers include Darrell Njos, Theresa Burns, Jordan Fairaizl, Lynn Lahren, and Cindy Auen and cat companion Lyndsey Dutton.

Other volunteers for CDHS that hit that magic 100-hour mark include newsletter editor Mike Gayette, Karen Schwan Holman, Treasurer, Tana Pendergast, Ruth Borlaug, and Michelle Gayette for their help with many special projects.

The following group organized or chaired fundraisers this past year and includes Kiel And Cameo Skager for their role in Santa Paws, Michelle Thomsen and Connie Udby for their help with the Run for Rescues and Larry Leblanc for Ride for Rover.

We also wanted to thank our creative team which includes Cameo Skager, Emilie Hillman, Clayton Hove, Jolene Podoll, Paige Mattson, Mike Gayette, and Robin Pursley.

The ladies that work our rummage sale every year include Sharon Cerkoney and Cindy Schafer.

We also want to mention our canister collection team who have their little brick road they drive month after month, gathering up the canister money located in businesses throughout the Bismarck/ Mandan area. Thank you to Camie and Bertha O’Connor, Janelle & Eric Henninger. and Sandy Gugel.

Bene-Pet volunteers that went above and beyond this year include: Connie Peterson for her help with the seating, Jan Burger for her help with the bid cards and place cards, Cindy Rohrick for her efforts in soliciting items for our live & silent auction and Dan Lyons for the many things he does and the guests he brings to our event. Thank you so much!!!

At the end of the Wizard of Oz, Dorothy does make her way back home by way of magic as she clicks her heels together three times. The good witch tells Dorothy she has the power of magic in her shoes. CDHS has its own magic as well. We may not click our shoes together three times, but with our supporters, staff, and volunteers these three things do create the magic to find the way home for each and every creature that comes our way.

Thanks to everyone for helping to build the yellow brick road for our shelter. If you have a rescue in your home look them in the eye tonight and you will see in their eyes and hear in their whisper....There’s no place like home; there’s no place like home!!!! ♡

Long-overdue Cathouse Serves Immediate Needs

By Sue Buchholz, Shelter Director

In December, we made the long-awaited move to our new Cat/Administrative building and there has been no looking back! I always think in the back of my mind that you can help animals in almost any condition, and for many years we did just that. I remember all the faces (furry and human) that passed through those doors and all the good that was done in that old building. But time takes its toll, and the structure was just not functional or even safe any longer. We watched with trepidation as the roof sagged, the wood rotted away, sparks flew, light fixtures leaked, mushrooms sprouted from the walls and concrete had patches on the patches. It was way past time to move on and out, and in December of 2017 that reality happened.

Our donors saw our need, and once again made it possible to build a small but safe facility that the community can truly be proud of. We designed it with the animals in mind, so as many cats as possible have free roaming rooms and live communally. Even our FIV positive kitties have a bright, comfy space where the bachelors hang out together, and soon (if spring ever comes) they will even have an outside enclosure for kitties to lounge outside in the sunshine, sniff the fresh air and give birds the slitty eye. We had extra-large kennels manufactured locally and our friends at Plastics Plus really came through. What good are windows if you block them and can't see outside? So Russ at Plastics Plus used clear plexiglass on the kennel side facing the windows, and we absolutely love the result. Natural light and a room with a view, it's a win-win for all!

We have a quarantine area for new arrivals that has its own air exchange and laundry facilities that do not flood the hallway when the washer spins out. It's a miracle! It has a small exam room/medication room, three offices and even a few dog kennel spaces for pregnant moms, small dogs, very timid dogs or whatever other special need medical cases that arrive. This facility makes even us see with new eyes the night-and-day difference in the conditions for the animals and the employees, and we are truly blessed to have this bright and clean environment to house our deserving friends.

So now that the kitties are enjoying their new housing, we decided to take another look at where the majority of the dogs reside. That building was built 18 years ago and it, too, needs some updating. We looked at how we can improve things immediately for the dogs and the people and came up with a low-cost solution that we hope makes a big difference. We have changed the layout of the kennels and no longer have dogs facing each other. It was a relatively small change, and we are still in the remodel stage, but already we are noticing less barking and mayhem when volunteers are walking dogs, or the public is walking through. We still have some structural repairs and the entire interior will get a much-needed coat of fresh paint. We hope this project is completed very soon and invite everyone to stop out and see for yourself the changes at YOUR shelter. We are pretty sure you will love it just as much as we all do! It was a long time coming but the animals deserve safe and comfortable housing for what is hopefully the short term. CDHS is a spring board to a new life, and your continued support provides the spring. 🐾

Tails of Success

Dyoni

Dyoni, or "Princess Di" as we call her, is doing very well!!! It is unbelievable what she has learned in such a short time (2 months). Princess Di is very intelligent and loves to please. Her #1 love is riding in the car or pickup. In fact, we took her on a 9-hour trip to Nebraska and she acted like she had done it all her life. She is such a joy. Thank you to the Humane Society staff and volunteers for bringing her in so we could take her home and give her love. Thanks again!

- Kim, Renee, and Dyoni Rose

Atty

I just wanted to thank you and let Tammy and all the other workers know that we love Atty with all our hearts, even if she eats all our shoes. She has met a few doggy friends along the way and loves to play with them. We have taught her how to ring a bell when she needs to go potty. She loves ringing the bell, even if she doesn't have to go potty. She loves the snow but not the cold weather. We look forward to bringing her down to visit soon.

- Thank you for letting us love her, Katherine

Faith

Hi, just wanted to give an update on Faith (aka Violet). She has been a perfect addition to our family. She is such a wonderful cat, very laid back, we couldn't ask for a better temperament for our first kitty. She loves laying in the sun, likes to be clean, enjoys playing with her little feline sister, Hope, and her canine companions, two brothers and one sister, Gizmo, Tob E. and Dakota. She is so loved, and we just can't thank you enough for this special lady!

- Allen, Anna, Dakota, Tob E., Gizmo, Faith, and Hope

Buster

I am giving you an update on the cat the we adopted in 2008. Everett (Buster) is polite, handsome (and he knows it) and a wonderful member to our family.

The first handful of years, he was shy and bashful. My wife did daycare in our home and Buster transformed into the cat that he is today, he allowed the children to play with him and is always affectionate. He has never scratched or hissed at anyone. Today, he enjoys people, going for walks with us, and cuddling up to us, with me as his favorite. Buster is great with our adopted Yorkshire Terrier.

Thank you so much again for making our family so proud and together.

- Travis

Griffen

Hi! About four years ago we met 007. He was a full bred Weimaraner who was quite misunderstood. He had a rough life as a hunting dog and needed some love. We are quite familiar with this particular breed and took him home. It was interesting to say the least as he needed to know to trust us and learn our pack. Griffen has been one of the world's best and he loves cuddling with our kids. The picture says it all. If you get another Weimaraner we would be happy to give love to another. Enjoy the pic!

Crosby

Crosby is doing great and loves his new home. It took about two weeks for him to get used to the change. He loves his toys and likes to cuddle between playing. He also loves being able to run around the house. I am so happy he is a part of our family now.

- James

Keith

Just wanted to update you on our fur baby Keith that adopted us about four months ago. He absolutely fits perfect with our family. He is a marshmallow when he plays with our Dachshunds and sons and loves to run in his yard and play for hours. was one of the pets of the week on TV and he loves to watch his own video when we turn it on (He is a big ham). He WAS heart worm positive when we got him, but after finishing his medicines he is healthy and energetic. Thank you CDHS for everything that you do, you are an amazing bunch of wonderful people.

- Gregory

Palatina

Here is a photo of Palette (now Palatino) and his oldest sister at home. He and brother Fitz have become great friends. Allison is still hanging onto the option that he is returnable, but every day she seems to like him more.

- Paula

Sonora

Sonora is doing great. She has adapted very well to her new home. She has the run of the house. Loves her Condo that sits next to the patio window in the sun. She's very cuddly and loves to lay in your lap. She sleeps at night in the bed and snuggles very close. She's a precious little girl who is loved a lot. Thank you again CDHS.

Thor

Wanted to update you on how wonderful Thor has been as an addition to our family!

We taught him how to ring a bell on the front door when he wanted to go outside, though he sometimes is a con man with this now!

Both Justin and I cannot imagine our lives without Thor. He is our canine child. He gives us so much unconditional love, is our sous chef, our little buddy, our 'Dr' when we don't feel well, our travel companion, and our co cheerleader when we're excited.

Thank you so much for the opportunity you gave us. We are forever grateful. Look for Thor on YouTube, Thor the Rott/shepherd

Wendell Award and Volunteer of the Year award

Wendell Award

The Wendell Award is given to those who provide “hands-on animal rescue.” Every year we honor an individual who has gone above and beyond to help an animal in need during our Bene-Pet event. The award was named for Bismarck’s Wendell Albert, whose constant support of our mission fuels us to help thousands more dogs and cats. Wendell is a pillar of our foundation – his kindness is never forgotten, and it’s an honor to share his legacy every year.

The 2017 Wendell Award was given to Hunter Peterson. Hunter stepped up when he was needed the most. Because of his efforts during our Hurricane Harvey rescue, not only did 18 flood victims find new homes in North Dakota, but the 18 kennels left open by those dogs were soon filled by other dogs in need.

When CDHS heard about Hurricane Harvey, we knew we had to help. We knew our community would step up, as it always does. A young man who had adopted a dog named Dude several months earlier responded to our cry for help on social media. After a quick series of messages, Hunter was at the shelter and already loading donated items and kennels into our trailer and his pickup truck. Soon it became clear we were going to need a second trailer. Again, just like magic, Hunter was gone and back with a 2nd trailer. By the next morning, we knew we had a partner, guide, and helper who remained cheerful and positive throughout the 32-hour road trip. Hunter, who didn’t know the staff members from CDHS very well, soon became like a little brother to all of us.

After what seemed like an eternity on the road, we pulled into the parking lot at 4:30 am on a Saturday morning, and a group of volunteers helped us unload the dogs. Before we knew it, 18 hungry, confused and exhausted pooches from down south were in their new home. Hunter still wasn’t done helping, and after a few hours of sleep, he joined us again for dog baths and kennel and Suburban cleaning duties.

When we asked for help we received more than assistance, we received a new volunteer and friend whose efforts will not be forgotten. Hunter helped save 18 dogs, met a zany group of CDHS employees and is a select group of a few volunteers that have been awarded the prestigious Wendell Award. Hunter’s kindness, work ethic, generosity and common sense are some of his characteristics that were apparent on every minute of this rescue trip. Good Job Hunter, we are so grateful for your help. 🐾

Volunteer of the Year

Our recipient of the Volunteer of the Year Award is Theresa Burns. Theresa has been volunteering for CDHS for two years, but the amount of work that she has done for our organization seems to be double that amount of hours!!

She is a “wonder woman for critters and CDHS”.

Theresa is a jack of all trades and master of most!!! She walks dogs, helps with fundraising events, does anything and everything the staff asks including office work, computer work, landscaping, baking, painting, providing information and videos for Critter Corner, subbing for Pet of the Week appearances, assisting with the dog walking classes, sorting, filing etc. You name it, Theresa does it with a smile on her face and joy in her heart.

Theresa’s love for animals is something the staff sees the minute she walks in the door. We feel very lucky that she has such a passion for volunteering with our organization. She comes to the shelter nearly every day we are open and spends her weekends and days off helping with whatever task we find for her and always does a wonderful job. She has recruited others to assist with various projects and encourages and shares her passion with everyone around her, including her family, who assists with many projects whether they want to or not.

Theresa is our go-to person for so many things and so many projects at CDHS. We are fortunate that fate brought us together. Many critters have benefitted from her involvement here, and we hope that many more will get to meet Theresa. Thanks, Theresa for all you do for furry and non-furry friends here at the Central Dakota Humane Society. 🐾

Where Do Your Donations Go?

Well, many places: heat, lights, kitty litter, bleach, laundry soap, paper towels, dog and cat food, and staff. You know, the basics.

A sizable chunk of your donations also goes to our many special needs animals. The ones who need just a little extra time and medicine. To put some furry faces on the issue, here's a not-quite-complete list of the special needs animals who appreciate your help.

Weeble has cerebellar hypoplasia and needs prescription food, and we are happy to get it for her.

Henni needs medicine to help her tummy.

Tada needs a wheelchair, so she can motor around with a broken pelvis, which she does quite well thank you very much!

Striker is a diabetic and needs insulin injections twice a day.

Kalani is on special food and medications for an auto immune condition.

Jamarcus needs a little boost for his old creaky joints.

Caramelle needs inexpensive thyroid medication, but she still needs it!

Loosey just had 4 kittens, so they get extra TLC, which is free.

Dreamcicle was in a big cat fight prior to coming to CDHS. He needed antibiotics and extra care.

Caleb and Yuki need sensitive stomach food.

Ella (successfully treated for heartworm!) still needs monthly heartworm preventative.

Old Man Buddy and Two Tone are currently receiving heartworm treatment.

Kaiser, once he beats heartworm, still has other medical issues to address. He kisses EVERYONE he meets, so if you would like a personal thank you in the form of a sloppy kiss from a grinning Pit Bull, Herr Kaiser is the man to see.

Samson had a terrible skin condition that took months of treatment, but he is 100% now and ready to GO.

Spud had a winky eye.

Brownie needed emergency surgery for an infected uterus.

Bubba needs glucosamine for his joints and a couch to chill on.

Conji had a skin condition.

Tag took on a porcupine and came out of that deal with over 500 quills to the face! Ouch!

And we never know what might come through our door the next day. This list is also a reminder that CDHS is happy to accept donated animal medications if you no longer need them, and if they have not expired. This is a big cost savings to CDHS and we truly appreciate that!

We love all the furry faces. The fast movers that find their new home in short order and the ones who need just a little extra help that costs some extra shekles. You can't put a price on love. 🐾
