HELPING KALANI

By Sue Buchholz
Photos by Jolene Podoll

It's been a long and winding road for our friend Kalani, but we finally have conquered her skin issues and have this beauty feeling pretty darn good! The before and after photos only tell part of the story but it's plain to see that she is feeling SO much better than when we first met.

The first inclinations from the veterinarians when she first arrived off the streets of Bismarck was allergies and/or parasites. Thus began hit and miss treatments, constant medication adjustments, different tests and food trials with limited success. There was improvement, but she was still itchy and uncomfortable and we wanted to do more to help her if we could. Cat lovers Lee and Jolene Podoll generously offered to sponsor a trip to the University of Minnesota to see a veterinary dermatologist, and we quickly made that appointment and packed her bags – well our bags. Kalani travels light. Anyway, off we went and Kalani was a good traveler. With some advanced diagnostic tools not available locally it was determined that she did not have allergies as we suspected but most likely an autoimmune condition that causes her body to attack itself. The “no allergies” news was a great relief and we began some new medications. Kalani has since enjoyed steady improvement. We now have her looking like a normal kitty and she feels so much better. We think it's time she finds her forever home.

Kalani now

We still consult with Dr. Young at the University of Minnesota via email and photos to update on her condition and make any medication changes. We are slowly weaning her down to as few meds as possible to maintain her new and improved full body of fur and non-itchy new self. What a relief it must be for her overall comfort, and once again it was our pleasure to be the springboard for Kalani to live a normal, happy life. Through it all she was calm and of good cheer – even when she had a right not to be. Kalani deserves a home that will pamper her forever and while she may have a little “baggage,” she promises to pay you back in extra purrs and snuggles. Special needs cats and dogs are just that, special in their own unique way. It does not make them less deserving of a loving home. If you are interested in adopting Kalani we would be happy to discuss her needs with you. It's not scary, we promise! 🐾

Shelter Report

By Sue Buchholz, Shelter Director

What a wonderful year this has been for CDHS! One big blessing that enters my mind every single day when I come to work is how much I love and appreciate our new cat and administrative facility. When it is cold outside, the first thing that greets us is a nice warm building free of drafts, and rodents, and mold, peeling paint and crumbling concrete and...well, you get the picture. Animal rescuers can care for animals in some pretty meager surroundings – we know that for a fact. We've seen those days – with roof leaks, patches on top of patches, frozen water bowls in the winter, plumbing that didn't always work, and questionable electrical wires.

It took many years (24 to be exact) to make our upgrade a reality, but we are so thankful to finally have our staff and cats in our new building. The building is bright, clean and airy, with lots of windows and natural light. It's much easier to clean and maintain and we now have a 100 percent healthier environment for the critters, staff, volunteers, and visitors. We hear compliments about our facility nearly every day from first time visitors, as well as long term supporters. We feel like we are living the dream and are so grateful to our supporters for believing in our vision and the work we do to save and shelter animals.

There are many people taking up the cause for animal welfare and protection across our state. Good, kind hearted people who sacrifice family time, blood, sweat, sleep, gasoline, tire treads and often personal resources to squeeze in just one more rescued pet. We are small in numbers compared to the need out there, but we all know that together we are making a difference for animals in our state and beyond.

This past year CDHS has rescued strays, taken animals from individuals needing to surrender them, and worked with several cities and counties to take in homeless pets. We have deepened friendships and continue to work with some big hearted, dedicated organizations who deserve some recognition. We have worked with, accepted animals from, and assisted communities and rescues across the state, specifically Standing Rock Reservation, Ft. Totten Reservation, New Town impound, the Bismarck-Mandan impound, Furry Friends Rockin' Rescue, Kitty City, Miles of Love, the Mandan Police Department, Prairie Paws Rescue in Jamestown, the Jamestown city impound, Raise the Woof in Dickinson, and The Little Cottage-ND in Devils Lake.

CDHS is proud to offer our support in kennel space or supplies when others have a need and we are able to do so. We thank our supporters as they helped us send animal supplies, medical supplies, and pet food to shelters in California affected by last fall's devastating wildfires. We also were able to help a shelter in North Carolina after its storage facility was burglarized and they lost all their pet food. CDHS scraped together a pallet full of dog and cat food and sent it on its way.

We are all in this together, and together we are making a difference for every voiceless heartbeat we encounter that needs our care and attention. I heard someone say that we are not just sheltering animals, we are building families. That feels pretty darn good. 🐾

SHELTER NOTE

CDHS is advancing its technology. We are learning and implementing a new donor management software. Please forgive our tardiness of donor receipts while we get everything set up and converted. If you were not acknowledged or we did not send a receipt for donation, please call the shelter at 701-667-2020. 🐾

Mandy's Corner

By Mandy Schaaf, Volunteer and Event Coordinator

Once again, I asked a few volunteers to let us know why they enjoy helping out at CDHS. Their stories are heartfelt and inspiring.

Teri:

I knew my employer was about to do layoffs and I knew my boss was calling me at 3 p.m. one afternoon. I got to the Humane Society before 3:00 so I was settled in with a kitty purring on my lap when I got the call that I would be unemployed. As hard as that call was to hear, I was comforted by that kitty and the other cats. Whether I'm happy or sad, when I get to the Humane Society, I always leave happy.

Michelle:

I volunteer for you guys because I feel like I can make a difference and am always welcome. I wouldn't volunteer if the staff weren't so awesome and didn't care about what they do. Every time I'm out there, I see that love for the animals in action whether it be through special touch or special little treats or whatever. I have sweated, laughed, and cried with these people and animals and never been judged. I've come home with "love" all over my clothes (i.e., slobber and fur).

As you know, my favorite animals have been some of the ones that may otherwise get overlooked (I mean I love all of them, especially the puppies, but my heart beats for the pups like Chippie and Pugsy and even now, slowly, Rusty). Those dogs I've had to fight to show I'm one to be trusted and one who will not cause pain. My favorite days have been those first walks, first kisses, first hugs, etc. There is nothing better than seeing the trust in their eyes and the wagging tail when they see me.

My role there is small, but it is also HUGE. I want to believe I'm helping to make them a pup someone will take home and love beyond measure. So I give them my love (and treats) until that happy day. 🐾

Our Volunteers are Paw-some!

Paw-some Volunteer – Robert Frishman

Robert Frishman, known to us as "Bert," has been volunteering at CDHS for about a year. Bert has a special place in his heart for special needs cats and enjoys hanging out with the felines at the shelter. One day, he was in such a hurry to get to his "volunteer job" that he got a speeding ticket on the way out to the shelter! Bert hangs out and loves up all the "cool cats." Bert says his favorite thing about volunteering at CDHS is, "You get to see a better side of people and gives you an opportunity to spend your time doing something worthwhile and hopefully make a difference in many lives."

Bert's favorite shelter animal is one of our special needs cats, Weebles, or Ms. Weebles, as Bert refers to her. He says she is just too easy to love. Bert always makes time for Weebles even if he only has a few minutes to spare. Weebles has a condition known as cerebellar hypoplasia, which is a developmental condition in which the cerebellum of the brain fails to develop properly. The cerebellum controls fine motor skills, balance and coordination. Weebles, who is 16, has lived most of her life at the shelter and has gone from tottering around to being basically immobile. In the summer, Bert takes Weebles outside so she can enjoy the fresh air and sunshine.

Bert doesn't ignore the other felines though. He helps to socialize them and lets them stretch their legs in the visiting rooms. Bert has his own rescues but stills makes time several days a week to visit the cats at CDHS. When asked how he felt about the shelter Bert said, "The staff work tirelessly, taking on the endless task of helping animals in need and their passion shows."

Bert is somewhat of a cat whisperer. You can sometimes hear him talking softly to the cats he is visiting with and calming them. Their purrs of contentment are evidence they respond to his gentle manner. Bert strongly encourages others to find time to visit the cats as often as they can because the cats love the affection and attention. Bert has enjoyed meeting others at the shelter and has made many, many friends including other volunteers, staff and most importantly, shelter cats waiting for their forever homes. On behalf of the cats and staff at CDHS we sure appreciate all the treats, time and love you give! 🐾

President's Report

Good-Bye CDHS Board – Hello, CDHS

By Cameo Skager

After at least 20 years on the CDHS board of directors, I have made the decision to say good-bye. Yes, I know, I guess you could call me a hanger-onner. That is a whole LOT of time spent helping to guide and direct shelter policies and plans. As with any board, there have been some ups and downs, some disagreements, some difficult decisions, and some celebrating of goals met and forward movement. I feel that I helped to make a difference for the people and the pets at CDHS and in our community. It's been a rewarding journey.

AND, in a change of career, I will be saying "hello" to CDHS as a staff person. After applying and interviewing, I was hired as the new Communications/Development Director.

The running joke is that I used to be Sue's "boss" because I was president of the board – and guess who is my boss now – yep. The good news is Sue is a great boss and truly has the animals' best interests at heart, on top of treating all the employees with respect, and fostering a fun, yet professional environment.

I will be busy posting all the CDHS news on social media, editing newsletters, doing community outreach, writing grants, and making connections with donors who want to help us help the animals. I do have to say, since starting work here, I have a newfound appreciation for ALL the hard work the staff takes on. It is a non-stop whirlwind of injured animals, new animals, phone calls, playful animals, adoption paperwork, paying the bills, phone calls, emails, greeting the public, training volunteers, planning for events, phone calls, feeding animals, trips to the vet, giving medicine to animals, scooping, scrubbing, and enjoying just a few stolen moments for some whisker rubs or tail wags.

You can be assured that the staff at CDHS is working hard every day and they are committed to providing the best care to the animals and the best service to the public. They are an amazing bunch of people who work with passion and a dedication to the animals.

So, here I go on another journey – helping the animals while working at the shelter, instead of just volunteering. If you haven't been to the shelter in a while, I invite you to visit. You will surely fall in love with the animals and who knows, maybe you will start your own journey at CDHS. 🐾

Tours and Thanks and Things

🐾 Thank you to Carpet World for the donation from their Shop for Paws event. We appreciate that you have us covered!

🐾 Thank you to Darlene and Ray Kautzman for the donation of postage stamps. It's something we are always in need of and appreciate so much!

🐾 Horizon Middle School students – Ella, Ava, Addi, Kinsley, and Reagan – toured the shelter to learn more about CDHS. Fellow animal lovers! Awesome!

🐾 Prairie Rose students – Kaden, Mason, and Austin (not pictured) – worked on a project in their 5th-grade class to make life easier. They built an automatic dog feeder. The future is bright and kids like this will lead the way. Thank you for thinking of CDHS!

🐾 Prairie Rose 5th graders – Harper, Jordan, and Isaac – also worked on a project for CDHS. They researched our website and then created a Facebook post that was shared on their class Facebook page. Helping to spread the word about all the good things happening at CDHS. Thank you!

🐾 Hats off to Taylor, Cienna, and Hattie! These 4th graders from Cathedral Elementary researched CDHS and then all sent a letter, along with a donation. More shining stars from Generation Z. The animals will always be in good hands.

🐾 Thank you to SpartanNash for another $1,000 check from their Direct Your Dollars campaign. Please keep turning in your Dan's SuperMarket receipts. We receive $1,000 for every $150,000 in receipts turned in.

🐾 Hooray for Debbie Mantz and Heather Dee – these ladies held Facebook birthday fundraisers for the shelter. And thank you to those who donated to their fundraisers. We appreciate the support!

Rhea (formerly Vogue)

"No gift will ever compare to the gift you gave us. Rhea (Vogue when you had her) is the best part of our lives. We can't wait to come get her a brother or sister. Merry Christmas!"

- Shawn and Megan

Kolby

"We are VERY happy with our dog, Kolby, we adopted there in August. He seems happy too!"

- Eric

Lemonade

Here is Lemonade resting like the king he is. He's my wonderful cat!

- Francina

Ollie (formerly Cotton)

"Hello! Just wanted to give an update on "Cotton" who now is known as Ollie. He's 9 months old already and just had his second haircut today! He's a great addition to the family and we are so thankful we were able to find him. Thank you for all that you guys do!!"

- Edita

Acadia

"Acadia has been adapting well, for how shy she is. She loves her cat tree, playing with her toys, and watching YouTube."

Ted

"I just wanted to give an update on my super handsome ginger cat named Ted that I adopted almost two months ago! He's made himself right at home with myself and my other cat, Cali. He loves to gaze out all my windows and watch outside, as well as lounge around in the cat tree. When he's not watching the birds or taking a cat nap in his tree he enjoys endless amounts of cuddles and love. He's definitely my cuddly boy. I'm so happy with the addition to my little family and I think he's happy to have found his furrrever home as well!"

CDHS Annual Meeting and Elections Held In March

CDHS will hold its annual meeting on March 18 at the Broadway Conference Center, 207 E. Broadway, Bismarck. During this meeting, board and executive board members will be elected. If you are interested in serving on the CDHS board of directors, please notify President Jerry Kemmet in writing via email (cjkemmet@bis.midco.net) or letter by March 11. To be elected to the board, a person must be a member in good standing of CDHS for at least 30 days. 🐾

Gunther

Shelter alumnus, Gunther, who lives with Lee and Jolene, is famous! He was featured in the Workman Publishing Page-A-Day Calendar. Jolene uses her fabulous photography skills to take pictures of all the pets at CDHS and she even found some time to photograph her own pets too. Thank you, Jolene and Gunther! Way to represent the amazing pets at CDHS! 🐾

SANTA PAWS

Santa and Mrs. Claus made their annual pre-Christmas stop at Plantperfect to visit with CDHS supporters and their pets. Santa ho, ho, ho'd, shared good cheer, took Christmas requests from the children, and encouraged all the people and pets to be on their best behavior for their holiday photo. Thanks to Plantperfect for hosting, In-Dog-Neat-O for sponsoring and to all who helped, and all who attended. It was a merry, furry event.

How Can I Help?

Here are some unique ways to help CDHS:

When you shop on Amazon, please go to smile.amazon.com and select Central Dakota Humane Society as your charity. We get a percentage of your purchase back as a donation from Amazon.

Take a hike! Well... take a walk anyway. If you walk, please sign up with the Wooftrax (WalkForADog) app and select CDHS as the shelter to support. The app is free and it's easy to sign up. You can use it when you walk your dog or when you walk without a dog. CDHS get proceeds from the app based on number of miles walked.

Follow CDHS on Facebook and Instagram – and SHARE our news with your friends. You can also check in on your social media when you visit the shelter. Help us spread the word about the great things happening at CDHS and view pictures of our adoptable pets. Who doesn't love dog and cat pictures! Right?! 🐾

GIVING HEARTS DAY IS COMING ON FEBRUARY 14

Giving Hearts Day is a day for people to support worthy nonprofits in North Dakota and Western Minnesota. It's all about helping charities help their communities.

Please share your giving heart with CDHS on Feb. 14. You can securely donate online at www.GivingHeartsDay.org (select Central Dakota Humane Society) or you can send us a check. Checks must be dated Feb. 14 and arrive prior to or on Feb. 14 to be counted.

We have received a matching $10,000 donation from a loyal, out-of-state supporter with strong ties to North Dakota. They would love for us to double their donation so our goal for the day is $20,000. Please help us continue to help the animals!
