Dee's Differences Make No Difference to Her

Marguerite

Momma Marguerite came to CDHS with her three kittens after they were rescued from living in an abandoned car. The two other siblings have been adopted, but we have been letting kitten Dee grow up at the shelter a bit longer. It appeared that she was born with malformed joints in her legs and we wanted to see how she would do as she got older.

One thing about animals is they don't tend to worry too much about their physical differences. That is certainly true for Dee, who is doing great. Her twisted legs do not slow her down. She does not appear to have any pain and still has feeling in her toes. She uses the litter box on her own, walks part of the time and scoots around a bit too. Her mom Marguerite is her helper and grooms her bottom since Dee can't reach back there.

Dee is playful and loves to pounce on toys. She enjoys sitting on laps and can purr up a storm. Momma Marguerite is also a very sweet cat. She is playful and loving to people, and likes to play and purr, just like Dee.

We are looking for an adopter willing to take Dee and Marguerite as a team. We are not sure if Dee will have issues as she matures, but an adopter would have to be willing to help Dee as needed. These two kitties are so sweet, playful, and loving – they really deserve a special family of their very own. Are you that family? 🐾

Dee

Congratulations to staff members Caroline and Mandy. We are celebrating Caroline's 20th year and Mandy's 10th year with CDHS. What dedication and heart! We love our staff!

CDHS Organizing New Programs to Help Pets and People

CDHS has started two new programs to provide greater help to the people and pets in our community, Buddy's Bowl and Friends Fur Life.

Buddy's Bowl will help to feed the pets of community members in need. CDHS volunteers are delivering dry dog and cat food to three local agencies, where it will be distributed – Community Action, Heavens Helpers Soup Café, and Ministry on the Margins. People who visit those agencies will be able to pick up pet food when it is available.

To fund the program, CDHS will continue receiving pet food donations from several community businesses (dubbed Buddy's Bowl Boosters), accept monetary donations designated for the program, and write grants seeking program funding. People who would like to donate pet food for the program can drop the food off at the CDHS shelter during regular business hours.

More than ever, during this pandemic, we know that there are people in our community who are having a difficult time providing for their families – and many of those families include pets. No one should have to give up their pets because they can't afford to feed them. With help from our community businesses and donors, we'll be working to fill up the bowls of pets in need.

Friends Fur Life is a program of CDHS that will allow senior people (65 and older) to adopt senior pets (6 and older) with a waived adoption fee. Adopters will also be given a $50 gift card sponsored by KT Animal Supply, and a free bag of food to get them started.

Adopters would still have to go through the normal visitation, application, and screening process that any adopter completes.

A huge shout out to MDU Resources Foundation who granted CDHS with $5,000 to get this program started. 🐾

Shelter Report

By Sue Buchholz, Shelter Director

A Shout Out to Our Critter-Lovin' Crew

As the years go by, I find myself getting more and more nostalgic. To say that time flies is truly an understatement and it's good to occasionally take a moment to reflect on just how far CDHS has come. I have said many times before that we started on a wing and a prayer in 1994, when we took a huge leap of faith and purchased the property north of Mandan. At that time, I was the only full-time employee, and we hired a part-time all-around helper named Nadine Darby. Lil Sinkula was the part-time Office Manager and we all started out by discovering everything that we did not know. And that was A LOT! Many precious volunteers came flocking in, excited to be a part of the first animal shelter in our area. It was new, exciting, and we hit the ground running! Providing seven-day-a-week care for animals is a commitment that can drown one quickly. Ask any shelter or rescue, our stories are all different and yet all the same.

Jump ahead to present day – along with the continued army of amazing volunteers who do so much, we have also grown a remarkable group of animal-loving, dedicated staff members. Many work part-time, some full-time. Several work other jobs plus their CDHS position. Many come in early and stay late (off the clock) to socialize and provide comfort and training to the animals. Beyond their spot-on care for the animals, many of the staff have other skills that have benefited the shelter – we have accountants, artists, business owners, teachers, entrepreneurs, and even an EMT!

This team of folks works with their head, their hands, and their heart. They are patient and ready to sprint to an emergency; open-minded and yet resolute in doing the best thing for the pets; soft hearted for the sick and injured and yet hard as nails when they are faced with the tough work.

I have always felt that one of CDHS's greatest strengths is the consistency of care we are able to provide these shelter animals during their stay with us – a consistency that comes from having an amazing staff who pays attention to details and knows the animals so well. They develop a trust and a bond with the animals that benefits those critters' physical and mental health.

Between them all, they know just about every single thing about every single animal. Nitty gritty litter box news and knowing what food makes a dog puke are not glamorous facts, but they are vital details to providing top notch care. And that is exactly what we strive to do. We are their home until they find their forever home. It's a labor of love and we all contribute in our unique ways to make it work.

Here's a well-deserved shout out to some of the very best people I know – the CDHS staff. You make it fun to come to work. 🐾

Tours and Thanks and Things

🐾 A million thank yous to Rita O'Neill, CDHS Board Director, as she says farewell to the Board after many, many years of service to CDHS. We so appreciate the time and energy she has spent helping CDHS. We know that we will continue to see her volunteering at our events and fundraisers and so it isn't really good-bye – just see you later!

🐾 Hurray, hurray to the students at Lewis & Clark Elementary in Mandan who provided one-of-a-kind pet art for our DoorStep Bene-Pet delivery bags. We were wowed by their talent and their caring hearts!

🐾 Thank you to Mid-Dakota Clinic for your donation of items for our Needs List. We appreciate your ongoing support!

🐾 Thank you KT Animal Supply for nominating CDHS to receive a case of Kongs from KONG! What a great interactive gift for our dogs!

🐾 Thank you to the those who held Facebook fundraisers for CDHS this quarter: Darren Gibbons, Annika Jade, Janelle Hammeren-Silbernagel, Beverly Everett, Melissa Minehart Mahlen, Angela Hoffman, Ellen Brooks, and Theresa Lambott.

🐾 Thank you to Target and to all our supporters who voted for CDHS in the Target Circle promotion. CDHS was very excited to receive $1715 to support the pets in need.

🐾 Shout out to all the folks at Redmann Law, P.C. They held a unique fundraiser where they donated for every person who loved their Facebook post. CDHS and the pets ended up with more than $300.

🐾 Thank you to our donors who gave with their hearts on Giving Hearts Day 2021. This regional effort raised millions of dollars for nonprofits across North Dakota. So many hearts full of love.

🐾 Thank you to our supporters turning in their receipts and thanks to SpartanNash and their Direct Your Dollars campaign, CDHS received another $1000! Keep those receipts coming!

Mandy's Corner

By Mandy Schaaf, Volunteer and Event Coordinator

Volunteers – You Are Appreciated!

National Volunteer Week is April 18-24, giving us the opportunity to thank our many volunteers who do so much. CDHS volunteers provide companionship to shelter pets by walking and socializing dogs and socializing cats, assist with community programs, help with landscaping, perform maintenance throughout the shelter, volunteer at fundraising events, and help with mailings, among many other projects.

Every hour that volunteers generously donate to support our shelter is very much appreciated. Many shelter projects have been completed only because volunteers have stepped up to help! Our volunteers have touched the lives of many critters AND many people. 2020 was a challenging year and the beginning of 2021 offered a few stumbling blocks getting back on track with our fundraising events and opportunities for critter companions. This made volunteering a little more challenging. Still, our volunteers pressed on, showed up, and kept showing up. We would like to recognize and thank those who have helped CDHS in 2020 in so many ways.

Our amazing group of volunteers donated a cumulative total of 7833.75 hours to CDHS in 2020. Wow!

Critter Companions are our dog walkers and cat companions. These folks show up consistently, some every day, to walk dogs in any kind of weather and offer their laps and love to many of our purring residents. Volunteers who donated 100 hours or more of their time as Critter Companions in 2020 include:

- Ron Berndt – 651.50 (Dogs)
- Ruth Borlaug – 625 (Dogs, Landscaping, Events)
- Eileen Hannu – 594 (Dogs)
- Darrell Njos – 525.25 (Dogs)
- Beverly Everett – 365.50 (Dogs)
- Jordyn Fairaizl – 222 (Dogs)
- Michelle Gayette – 168.25 (Dogs/Dog Walking Class/Events/Board of Directors)
- Mike Gayette – 125.20 (Cats/Dogs/Dog Walking class/Board of Directors)
- Danny Selinger – 122.50 (Cats)
- Jackie Bischof – 121.50 (Dogs)

CDHS Board Members are volunteers that help the staff set policies and procedures and assist with everything from supervising building projects to working at fundraisers and overseeing our financial reporting.

CDHS Board members include David Borlaug, Vice President; Rebecca Dorwart, Secretary; Rita O'Neill; Charlene Seifert; and Michelle Thomsen. CDHS Board members who have volunteered 100 or more hours include Jerry Kemmet, President – 627; Anne Green – 230; Karen Schwan-Holman, Treasurer – 282;

Michelle Gayette – 168.25; and Mike Gayette – 125.50.

The following volunteers go above and beyond. They work their tails off to help all the tail wagers and whisker rubbers at CDHS.

Tana Pendergast is the master of silent auction groupings! She puts together the groupings for our CritterBidders online auctions. Her talent and ability to group items that many want to bid on is a wonderful skill that comes in quite handy and has resulted in several very successful online events.

Carrie Schmidt, an employee of CDHS, is also an amazing artist and has created several murals throughout the dog and cat buildings. Thank you for your talents, Carrie. The shelter (and world) is brighter because of you!

Jo Brekke and Carrie Mundahl made beautiful fleece blankets that we sell at the shelter, in our CritterBidder online auctions and at the limited number of live events we have had in 2020 and 2021. Thank you for your contribution of time and talents!

Dan Lyons is a long-time supporter and volunteer and is always willing to lend a helping hand (or hands) by offering assistance from his business HomeTown Moving, Inc. Dan has also been a great help with events for many years. We thank Dan for sticking around and hope to see him even more in 2021!

CDHS has been the recipient of many $1,000 checks from SpartanNash, thanks largely to Christy Zainhofsky, who painstakingly keeps track of the grocery receipts that folks donate toward our cause. Her work is greatly appreciated. We love to see the result of the community's generosity and Christy's hard work coming together for the benefit of the animals.

For years Bertha O'Connor, Camie O'Connor, Sandy Gugel, and Eric & Janelle Henninger have driven many miles on their lunch hours or after work providing a service that has resulted in many thousands of dollars every year. They also distribute posters for our upcoming events while making their rounds. Thank you to the Canister Collection Crew!

Jolene Podoll donated 833 hours to CDHS in 2020 as our photographer. She captures the personality and spirit of our wonderful pets and writes the description of the shelter pets for the website. Jolene is an amazing photographer and the dogs and cats at CDHS always know when she arrives as they will each receive a tasty treat of deli turkey... EVERY. SINGLE. DAY.

Other notable volunteers who provide of their time and talents on a consistent basis to help us with important projects.

Tony Mason – picks up and delivers donated food

We have many, many other volunteers that help us do the great work that we do. A donation of time is a gift that CDHS treasures and appreciates. CDHS volunteers are incredible, dedicated, and appreciated. What a great group of givers! 🐾

Thank You to CDHS's Fantastic Fosters

Changing routines due to COVID actually relieved pressure on CDHS's foster care program, as people working from home were better able to care for orphan and stray kittens. In 2020, nine foster families dedicated more than 1,882 hours caring for 33 kittens, including one little guy less than 24 hours old who started his life in an incubator.

Several families even cared for more than one litter over the course of "kitten season," and other fosters shared duties, with a "bottle foster" starting the babies out and transferring to an "eating on their own" foster once the kittens were eating solid foods.

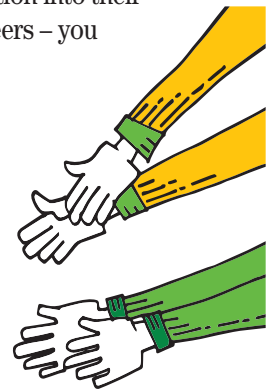

Foster families bottle-fed the tiniest orphans as frequently as every two hours, stimulated them to potty (a task usually left to their mothers), and treated everything from upper respiratory infections to eye infections to pneumonia.

As "their kids" grew, fosters introduced the babies to solid foods and using the litter box, drove them to vet appointments and to CDHS for vaccinations, and kept up with what seems like constant clean-up during the first six weeks of life.

They enjoyed play and snuggle times and seeing the kittens grow and thrive, and survived the mixed blessing of bringing the babies back to CDHS, ready for adoption into their forever homes. Thank you, foster volunteers – you truly are lifesavers!

DoorStep Bene-Pet was a Fundraiser Delivered to the Door

This year's Bene-Pet fundraising event had to be reimagined and thus turned into a limited-ticket event that brought the best parts of the fundraiser right to the door. Ticket purchasers received three decadent desserts from our amazing sponsor, Pirogue Grille, their choice of wine or sparkling water, a CDHS stemless wine glass, raffle tickets, and games of chance. They were also treated to original artwork on the bags from students at Lewis and Clark Elementary in Mandan!

There is still a chance for you to help raise money for this event! Check out the DoorStep Bene-Pet Raffle tickets in this newsletter. Send in your tickets by May 12 for a chance to win!

Bene-Pet CritterBidders, our online auction, happened at the same time as DoorStep Bene-Pet, helping to fill in for our largest annual fundraiser that we were not able to hold. Thank you to all the donors, sponsors, and participants. 🐾

Tails of Success

Editor's note: Thank you to Pugsy's new mom, Jordyn, for writing this article. Pugsy was rescued from an awful puppy mill in North Dakota. The dogs in that situation were starving and fighting each other for food. They were severely neglected, and some were even locked in an empty grain bin. Pugsy started her life in the most awful of circumstances and has deep-seated trust and aggression issues due to having to fight to survive. CDHS staff and volunteers have spent considerable time helping her overcome her issues. Pugsy picked Jordyn as her main human and Jordyn worked very hard to gain her trust so that she could be adopted and go home. Jordyn continues to work hard with Pugsy, helping her learn that life can be great and full of love.

Pugsy

By Pugsy's mom,
Jordyn Fairaizle

Hi everyone! I am so excited to be writing this article about Pugsy and her journey after shelter life. We have made a lot of progress with her and she is adjusting very well.

I live in an apartment and she was quite nervous when I first brought her home. I don't think she had ever seen stairs before, and I had to carry her up and down them for the first few days. She did not eat the first 24 hours either. Poor girl was nervous, but I do not blame her.

I knew the second day that she was home, I had to get her into training. Many places told me that I should wait until she has been in the apartment for 3-6 months, but I knew in my heart that was not an option. I knew the trainer at Bed 'n Biscuit and their card in Pugsy's adoption packet offered a free evaluation so I made an appointment.

At the evaluation, it was determined that Pugsy needed Behavioral Modification Training private lessons to work through some issues. Besides learning basic commands, she is also being taught that it's not appropriate to want to attack animals and bite people when scared, while receiving praise when she does something good. This training is allowing her to gain confidence and learn to be appropriate in new situations and around other animals.

Since being in private lessons, Pugsy is now a fairly well-mannered dog. She can heel, sit, down, and stay. She has also learned "place," where she has to stay on her blanket until I tell her she can come off.

We have moved to working her with dogs and her behavior is slowly, but surely, getting better. She does not bark, lunge, jump around, or stare at the dogs as much as our first session. We are confident that she will be able to move on from her past, but she has a lot of rage in her small body that we need to overcome.

Starting training early was the best decision for Pugsy. Living in an apartment involves its own set of struggles. Pugsy walks nicely through the hallways and garage. She has learned how to ride the elevator and be appropriate when others are on the elevator with us, all because of training.

Our trainer told me not to avoid going outside during the times other dogs might be outside and to take her places where there are other dogs. I started taking her to the pet store and she loves it. Her favorite part is picking out a new toy and treat. She does very well and typically ignores the other dogs. Automatic doors are still scary, but we'll continue to work on that.

I take Pugsy for walks often with my mother and our family dog and with my friends who have dogs. My hope for her isn't to be best friends with every dog; my hope is for her to learn that they are okay and to ignore them.

Her training has not been all rainbows and butterflies. My 12-year-old male cousin and I went for a walk with Pugsy and it went fine... until he stepped on some ice and it made a crackling sound. It spooked Pugsy and she barked, lunged, and stared him down. I had to end our walk early because I didn't want this one incident to be her lasting impression of him. My cousin is determined to get her to like him, and I did not want to ruin that. With her change of personality and slowly not being so scared of people, I know that she will eventually love him as much as he loves her.

Learning how to be appropriate around other animals isn't the only thing that has changed with Pugsy. Her entire personality is different than what it was at CDHS. Pugsy loves to cuddle and give kisses. If my snooze alarm goes off too many times, she wakes me up by licking my ears. She absolutely loves going to my grandparents to run free in their fenced yard; loves to play fetch with her squeaky ball; loves to chase the birds and squirrels in the yard; and wants to smell all the smells. Her favorite activities are sleeping on the chair and chaise lounge. Pugsy used to sleep on the floor beside my bed because she was scared to sleep on the bed. Now she knows "bedtime" and jumps on the bed and gets all comfy. She still has her stubbornness, attitude, and sassiness that she had at CDHS and I absolutely love that personality. She has learned to be brave and likes to explore new areas. She loves going for long walks and car rides. She loves my parents' house, and is learning to like my parents. Surprisingly enough, she doesn't mind going to training either.

I am so glad I spent so long earning her trust because she is the best dog, and she is such a different dog in a home. I am thankful that she chose me to be her human. My goal is for her to be the happiest dog for the rest of her life. She didn't get the best life growing up, but I hope I can show her the world and forget about all the negative in her past. Her new world will be bright. 🐾

Kitten Season Never Ends

There used to be a somewhat distinct beginning to “kitten season,” where we began to see baby kitties, mostly in the springtime. Unfortunately, it seems this season now never really has an ending. If you follow the work of other North Dakota rescues, you will notice that all the organizations are dealing with an influx of babies and that many of them are sick with respiratory distress, eye infections, injuries, worms, and other illnesses.

Yep, baby kitties are usually sweet little balls of furry fun, but the sick and injured homeless babies break our hearts. The very best way to stop this ongoing overpopulation of cats is to have all pets spayed or neutered, and to restrict their unmonitored, outside access. Please help educate your friends and neighbors about responsible pet care. And please help spread the word about CDHS’s Spay/Neuter Assistance Coupons - $40 off a spay/neuter procedure at most Bismarck-Mandan vets and many in central North Dakota. Hopefully, we can begin to make an impact and reduce the number of homeless kitties. 🐾
