Big Wanda and the Babies

Shelters and rescues throughout the state often work together to help animals, transporting to facilities that have room for them. That is how Big Wanda came to live with us at CDHS. Turtle Mountain Animal Rescue contacted us about a soon-to-deliver pregnant momma dog and asked if we could help. She had been wandering around an apartment complex for several weeks, and Turtle Mountain was made aware due to concern about her bulging belly.

Due to a recent adoption, our “nursery” kennel was open, so we quickly agreed. She looked due to deliver any second, so arrangements were made to meet in Minot for the hand off. Wanda was uncomfortable but immediately smiley and even giving trusting kisses. We got her back to CDHS as quickly as we could.

Thankfully, we had a week to really make friends and gain her trust before she delivered her chunky brood and, as an added bonus, her personality did not change towards us as we helped co-parent her new family. She is a great momma, concerned and attentive but not overly protective of her brood.

Wanda is beautiful and smart and will make a GREAT companion once her milk delivery duties are behind her. Her seven chunky little tootsie rolls will grow to be big and strong and never have to dig through garbage piles scrounging for a meal. The world of rescue takes something heartbreaking and turns it into something beautiful, and that feels pretty darn good. 🐾

Shelter Report

By Sue Buchholz, Shelter Director

Investing in CDHS and the Animals is a Wonderful Thing

When someone asks me why I love working at CDHS I hesitate a moment to think. It is hard to pick one reason because there are so many. Is it the daily interaction with the animals? Absolutely yes! What about my amazing and dedicated coworkers in this crazy jungle of emotions we encounter every day? Absolutely yes! I smile inside when people's perception is that we get to frolic with puppies and pet cats all day long. Granted that is a perk that takes up a glorious fraction of the day. But sick animals and never-ending poop production could put a quick damper on this rainbow and roses fallacy.

Ok, so the animals do come first. But right on their heels are the people who are in the trenches every day to make lives better for as many animals as we can safely and humanely care for. Our staff spends hours every morning, 365 days a year cleaning kennels, scrubbing litter boxes and food bowls, and giving medications and TLC to the 140-plus dogs and cats we house. That is why we are not open to the public until the afternoon! Animal care comes first, then staff lunch break, then we are ready at 1 pm to open our doors to visitors, critter companions, and potential adopters.

Then the phone starts ringing, and ringing, and ringing...and makes me wonder what we were thinking to have three phone lines... eeeeeek! But here is another thing I love - when our staff says, "How can we do more?" We have almost weekly conversations about this, and it proves to be challenging for me. We have come from some very humble beginnings - a time when it took a great leap of faith to push forward and still pay our expenses every month. Being frugal was instilled on me at a very young age and certainly carries over into my work life. I feel a massive responsibility to be a proper steward of the resources and trust our supporters have given us, and it's something I think about every day. Requests for assistance of one kind or another come in constantly, and that too is a juggling act not for the faint of heart. Just like the animals that need us, it's also a challenge to determine how to best serve people.

Some years ago, we implemented our MOST important Spay/Neuter financial assistance program. CDHS has contributed to thousands of animals being altered in our communities. Then we created Buddy's Bowl to provide pet food for folks experiencing a shortage of funds to provide food for their beloved companions. In these challenging economic times, we must do what we can to help keep animals in homes and out of the shelter/rescue system.

The war in Ukraine touches us all, and as I am still numb and frozen at the magnitude of this tragedy. We began to ponder what we could do to make a difference. A t-shirt fundraiser was quickly put together by our amazing staff and we asked shelters around the state to help publicize. Through the generosity of so many pet lovers we will be sending nearly $5,800 to the International Fund for Animal Welfare (ifaw) to help pets in Ukraine and Poland. Wow!

When you financially support CDHS, you provide care for animals sheltered locally. You prevent unwanted litters from adding to the overburdened shelter/rescue system. You help your neighbor in tough times get by another day. You put your trust in us to look for ways that we can do even more to help animals and people throughout the state. And you even help animals a world away. We started out small but are growing a bit every day and every year. We are doing things better, doing things smarter, helping more people, and helping more cats and dogs. It is a most worthy thing to love. 🐾

RUMMAGE SALE

Intake Dates
(Three weeks only!)

July 16-Aug. 6

We appreciate the many donations. Please help us by only bringing donations during the intake timeframe and during our open hours. Unloading items and organizing the rummage sale is a humongous task managed by the muscle of our volunteers. Adhering to limited intake dates ensures the health of our volunteers.

Thank you for understanding.

Mandy's Corner

By Mandy Schaaf, Volunteer and Event Coordinator

YEE-HAW for ALL OUR Volunteers!

In total, our family of volunteers donated more than 11,000 hours to Central Dakota Humane Society in 2021! From our amazing fosters, to critter companions, to event volunteers, to those who help in any way, we say, "Thanks, Pardners!"

Our foster coordinator says our foster families have "hearts of gold and spines of steel." Our dog walkers are committed to getting every dog in the shelter walked daily. Our cat critter companions work hard at helping timid and traumatized kittens and cats acclimate to humans. Our canister collection team puts in hundreds of miles and thousands of steps in visiting the generous businesses that allow CDHS to place our coin donation canisters. Our event volunteers are back in action after a brief hiatus, and they are more motivated than ever to help make each fundraiser a great success. A new team of volunteers has stepped up to make regular deliveries of pet food to assist pets and people in need through our Buddy's Bowl Program. Our volunteers are so needed and so appreciated! Help us say thank you to all those who donated more than 100 hours of their time in 2021!

Please join me in applauding our dedicated and giving Volunteers of the Year for 2021 - Ron Berndt and Beverly Everett!

RON BERNDT has been walking CDHS dogs for about two years and takes his volunteer duties very seriously. Ron was looking for something meaningful to do after he retired and attended the dog walking class. The rest is history. Ron is focused and determined to make sure all the dogs get at least one walk every day the shelter is open to the public. It doesn't matter if it's 50 below or 106 above, Ron is there day in and day out. The dogs he walks are many and they love him. Ron is easy going, kind, has a positive attitude, and brings a smile to the faces of the dogs AND the staff.

We appreciate the 838 hours he has donated to CDHS in 2021. The other volunteers look up to him and we consider him a huge part of the CDHS dog walking program. Our favorite Ronism, which he whispers to the dogs daily is "May you be safe. May you be healthy. May you be happy. May you live with ease."

Ron said, "I feel like in some small way I am hopefully making a positive difference in the life of one of the dogs. Even if only for a few moments here and there." Yes, Ron, you are making a huge difference - for all the dogs. His efforts are important and essential because these walks help so much with the dogs' demeanor, health, and well-being. Thank you, Ron! You are a beacon of light to the dogs and the humans as well!

BEVERLY EVERETT has been volunteering with CDHS since August 8, 2019. Bev was introduced to CDHS at a meet-and-greet, and it was the start of a wonderful relationship. She provides companionship for our shelter dogs by walking and running every day!

Bev's favorite thing about volunteering is her time with the dogs. She has a very "special" relationship with several of our dogs and they go on long runs, walks, and hikes. She and her furry companions have had several amazing adventures. They have seen a moose up close and personal, encountered a huge bull snake, and have run into every weather condition North Dakota has to offer. Bev even rescued three fuzzy kittens that had either been born or fallen into an abandoned well at the edge of the CDHS property. Well... we should say Bev and our beloved Pitbull, Kaiser, rescued the kittens. (Kaiser spotted the kitties and let Bev know to take a look.)

When Bev started volunteering, she said she felt that she had "found her people." Bev is a compassionate, loving animal advocate. She is tireless in her devotion to helping CDHS through spreading our mission. Bev wrote a book titled "Hallway of Hope," and has donated the proceeds to CDHS! It is a must read for animal lovers! Beverly encourages everyone to please support CDHS.

A quote Bev shared with us that will always leave a mark in our hearts is, "How we treat those less fortunate in our world is a measure of our humanity, and with CDHS as a benchmark, our humanity shines very bright." Thank you, Beverly! You are an amazing gift to the dogs and people at CDHS.

Also, please help us recognize our amazing Wendell Award winner for 2021 – LILA TEUNISSEN!

Pathos came to us in December of 2020, one of three pit-cross pups found on the side of the road in rural North Dakota. They were shy, independent, and wary, dogs that had never had a leader and we call unsocialized. Eventually the two siblings found homes, but Pathos was not catching anyone's eye. While he had friends in our staff and volunteers, he preferred a very small circle and was slow to accept unfamiliar people and new dogs. The longer Pathos stayed at CDHS, the more anxious, unsettled, and unhappy he became. We knew he needed an intervention and an ally, and thankfully we found one in Lila Teunissen

Lila, with Isley

CDHS Assistant Manager Shelly Kohler made contact with Lila, who co-owns Bed n Biscuit Ranch in Bismarck, and she agreed to stop out and meet him. Pathos showed his first instincts of fear and mistrust and indicated he would prefer to bite her first and ask questions later. Lila was undaunted. She worked with him one-on-one several times at CDHS and then asked if he could join the three-week Board and Train program offered at Bed n Biscuit. Knowing it was in his absolute best interest we made that happen, and with a tear in our eye and an anxious feeling in our stomach, Pathos moved on to boarding school. Lila personally worked with him every day for three weeks, and also found a foster home for him to graduate to, so he could continue his training outside of a shelter setting. Pathos was doing well, but unforeseen life circumstances forced the foster to move to another city.

Lila's commitment to Pathos' success was so strong that she took him into her own home for a time. She proposed what she felt would be the next best step for Pathos, and that was some additional training at RiteTrack Behavioral Training in Menomonie, WI. Lila paved the way to make that happen, and even offered to transport him to that facility. What a whirlwind year it has been and while he is doing so well and has learned so much, Pathos is still fostered and in search of his forever home. Lila truly saved the life of our Pathos and has given him his best chance to live his best life as a good boy. Lila works with dogs from many other rescues and shelters and is literally saving their lives. Thank you, Lila!

(The Wendell Award is presented annually to people who go above and beyond in their efforts to save animals.) 🐾

Mark your calendars for the first Tuesday of every month because that is Buddy's Night at Bennigan's. Our locally owned Bennigan's restaurant is partnering with CDHS to help fund the Buddy's Bowl Program – helping to fill the bowls of pets in need in our community.

Plan to bring a donated bag of pet food along and Bennigan's will give CDHS 20% of your meal ticket as a donation. The more people who participate, the bigger the donation. So, be sure to order an appetizer, a big steak, and a dessert!!

Thank you for helping the pets in need! 🐾
